

JUDGE EVANS

Sustain Referee Bagby in the Case of John Moore, Colored.

DECISION RECEIVED TODAY

Moore Wanted His Fines Taken Out of His Assets When He Became Bankrupt.

HAS NOW EXECUTED BOND

Judge Walter Evans, of the United States court at Louisville, has sustained Referee Bagby in the latter's decision in the John Moore case, ruling that a fine assessed by a court cannot be deducted from the assets of a bankrupt. The ruling of Referee Bagby was very important, as had the fine been allowed to come out of the assets, he turned over to creditors when he became bankrupt, many offenders would seek this means of paying their fines. Moore was fined $100 at a recent term of circuit court for keeping a disorderly house. Soon afterwards he filed a petition in bankruptcy and it was asked that the fine and costs be taken from the assets. Referee Bagby decided that this could not be done, and Judge Evans sustains him. Moore has executed a replevin bond, however, and will not have to go to jail for the fine.

MANDAMUS REFUSED.

JUSTICE HOOK'S NAME WILL GO ON THE BALLOT.

Judge Hanks this morning in circuit court refused to grant the mandamus asked by Mr. E. W. Berry, to compel County Clerk Graham to place his name on the ballot under the Republican device, instead of that of Justice W. H. Hook, the regular nominee of the party. The refusal of the court to grant the mandamus means that Justice Hook's name will be placed on the ballot.

DIED AT SHARPE.

MR. W. P. HILL, AN AGED RESIDENT, DIED FROM PARALYSIS.

Mr. W. P. Hill, a well known resident of near Sharpe, Marshall county, died last night from paralysis, aged 82. He was stricken Sunday, and never rallied. He had resided in Marshall county for many years, and was a highly respected man. He leaves a wife and eight children, among the latter being Mr. Sam Hill, circulation manager of The Sun, who was called to his bedside Monday morning. The funeral took place today, burial at the Fiske graveyard.

CIRCUIT COURT.

In the divorce case of Arie A. Beasley against Robert O. Beasley and Enslah Beasley against Evely Beasley, the cases were dismissed at the cost of the plaintiffs.

Oliver & Oliver, attorneys, filed two suits in the circuit court today. Ellen Young filed a suit against her husband, Andrew Young, for divorce and such alimony as the court sees fit to give for the maintenance of the plaintiff and the two children, George and Myrtle Young, both minors. She says that the defendant drove her from her home some time ago with threats on her life, and that he had, up to the time of the separation, treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner, and that she gives as her grounds for the action.

The Henderson Brewing Co. filed a suit against E. H. Rogers and others who were the bondsmen of a former agent for the company here. There is a remaining debt of $200, and this is what the company seeks to collect.

In the case of The President and the Faculty of St. Vincent college of Cape Girardeau, Mo., against W. B. Hopkinson, for $27.55, tuition for the defendant's son, the defendant confessed judgment by his non-appearance, and the claim awarded the plaintiff.

W. V. Eaton, administrator of the estate of George Samsberry, who was a resident of the City of Golconda, and who lost his life in the disaster, filed a suit against O. Bauer and Arthur Peck, the owners and operators of the boat, to recover $2,000 damages. The petition claims that Samsberry met his death through negligence and carelessness of the operators of the boat.

THE WEATHER.

LOUISVILLE PANIC

Mad Rush From the Temple Theater Yesterday Afternoon.

Quite a Number of People Were Painfully Hurt—Polycope Apparatus Exploded.

THE GRIM REAPER

Mr. George Langstaff, Sr., Succumbs to Pneumonia.

AFTER A BRIEF ILLNESS

Paducah Lays One of Her Oldest and Most Valued Citizens.

THE FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS

Mr. George Langstaff, Sr., one of Paducah's most prominent citizens, died yesterday afternoon at his home on Broadway, between Seventh and Ninth streets, from acute pneumonia, after a brief illness.

Mr. Langstaff was born in Mt. Holly, N. J., in 1831, and was a son of Mr. James Langstaff, a prominent Quaker of that place. He was a graduate of Princeton, and was valedictorian of his class, over half a century ago. He graduated two years later from the Louisville law school, and came to Paducah with his brother, the late Mr. Samuel Langstaff, in 1849.

With their father they were interested in a big grist mill where the Palmer-Ferguson plant now is, and a saw mill nearby, but sold the grist mill to William, John and Hardin Milliken. The saw mill burned several times, and Mr. James Langstaff had serious financial embarrassments to the extent of $20,000. When he died, this amount his sons, Samuel and George, who were yet young men, set about paying off, and soon had every cent of it paid, showing their indomitable will, backed by the integrity which marked their every act in life.

The Langstaff-Orma Manufacturing company was then organized by the two sons and the late Mr. John Orma, and today one of the largest in the country. The deceased was married to Miss Fanny Smith of Louisville, who survives him, with one son, Mr. George Langstaff, Jr. They celebrated their golden wedding only a few months ago. A sister also survives, Mrs. John R. Howell of Mt. Holly, N. J.

Mr. Langstaff was a member of Grace Episcopal church, and had for forty years been a member of Paducah Lodge, F. and A. M. He had served as a city councilman, but was a gentleman of retiring disposition, and sought no official distinction of any kind. His benevolences were unostentatious, but he was a public spirited man, who had done much for the growth of Paducah. He was known to everybody for his generosity and enterprise, and his place can never be filled. He was a citizen of whom Paducah was proud, and whose life may be pointed to as one worthy to emulate.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from Grace Episcopal church, Rector Reed officiating. Burial at Oak Grove.

BOLD HIGHWAYMAN.

HOLDS UP TRAIN ALL ALONE THIS MORNING.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 22.—A northern bound Southern Pacific express train was held up by a lone highwayman at an early hour this morning near Eugene. The extent of the robbery has not been given out yet.

A DEPUTY'S DEPUTY.

Deputy Jailer Tom Evitts now has a deputy under him, and the new official is only five years of age. He carries a pistol, however, and Deputy Evitts says that he will make a good official in time.

The little fellow's name is Master Herbert Clifton Powell, and he was yesterday afternoon adopted by Mr. Evitts, who got him from the poor farm, where he has been living. His parents are both dead, his mother having passed away several months ago. The little man seems to like his new surroundings, and is very much pleased with the new arrangement.

TODAY'S TOBACCO SALES.

The tobacco market for this section is about over, only a few scattering hogheads being on the market. Today the sales at both the warehouses were light, and the market is reported over for the season. Farmer & Co. offered 4 hogheads with no rejections.

There was only common leaf offered and it brought from $5 to $6.00.

The Western District Warehouse Co. reported the sale of 3 hogheads all that was offered.

Three hogheads were lots, which brought from $1 to $4.75. There was one hoghead of common leaf, and it sold at 5 1/2 cents. The market is reported by the firm as being about over, for the season, on all grades of tobacco.

COL. W. W. HITE, Kentucky.
C. J. MURPHY, Indiana.
CAPT. MARION WRIGHT, Illinois.

The chairman of local committees are: Executive, S. A. Fowler; Arrangements, H. A. Peltier; Reception, Hon. James M. Lang; Entertainment, Major J. H. Anersart; Citizens Captain J. H. Fowler.

Called to Order.
The seventh annual convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning at the Knights of Pythias hall, in the Campbell building, by Hon. S. A. Fowler, of Paducah.

Rev. W. E. Cave pronounced the invocation. Judge James Campbell, of Paducah, welcomed the delegates on behalf of the state of Kentucky, and Mayor James M. Lang extended the freedom of the city to them in a well delivered speech which evoked great applause.

In the absence of Captain John L. Vance, of Columbus, O., the president, Captain J. Frank Ellison, of Cincinnati, delivered the response, which was one of the most eloquent and able ever heard here. A Captain Ellison formerly resided here, and recounted a few amusing reminiscences of his boyhood life here.

He joyfully said among other things, that he had done a great deal for Paducah—whenever Judge Sanders' records would show. That he well remembered the judge, and had paid more fines while a youth in Paducah than he had since paid taxes in Cincinnati.

The deceased was married to Miss Fanny Smith of Louisville, who survives him, with one son, Mr. George Langstaff, Jr. They celebrated their golden wedding only a few months ago. A sister also survives, Mrs. John R. Howell of Mt. Holly, N. J.

ANNUAL CUT

The Force at Illinois Central Shops Reduced and Hours Cut Down.

ORDER IS EFFECTIVE AT ONCE

THE LATEST RAILROAD NOTES

The Cut Is in Keeping With the Road's Annual Policy—The Pay Train Goes East.

THE LATEST RAILROAD NOTES

The usual annual cut in the working force of the local I. C. shops, the entire shops, and also in the working hours was made today, the first day after the arrival of the pay car. Orders were received by the local officials from Chicago ordering the "cut."

All the forces in the machine, blacksmith and wood working departments, about 40, were affected by the cut. The working day, which has been ten hours, was cut to eight hours in all the departments. There had been a misunderstanding relative to the cut which is made every year and it varies from a few to many layoffs. This year, however, it is slight but another order authorizing another cut may be made later on when the work has all been discharged from the shops. The reduction is general and affects other shops besides the shops here. The working week is the regular six day week and no work will hereafter be done on Sunday save in the most extreme emergency cases.

One of Terrell's hacks, No. 400, broke an axle last night at the depot. The accident happened near the station and the passengers were placed in no inconvenience by it. No one was injured. The vehicle sustained other damages of a slight nature.

The delegates to the waterway convention arrived in the city this morning on No. 103 in two special sleepers, the Yantic, of Cincinnati, and the Egeria, of Louisville. The sleepers have been sidetracked and will be used by the delegates on the return trip.

The I. C. pay car left the city this morning for the Louisville division after having paid off all the local employees. It will return and pass through for the south end of the system tomorrow.

Messrs. John Jones and Isaac Evans, of the I. O. wood working department, left for Gary this morning to do work on damaged cars at that place.

The Eleventh street junction double tracks at Louisville have been placed in use for the north and south bound trains and the bulletin to that effect has been posted here. All the north bound trains will come in on one track and the south bound on the other. The same arrangement will be used in the departure of the trains. The new arrangement will be of much convenience to the trainmen.

President Fish's special train, which passed through the city Monday morning at 5 o'clock has been generally mistaken for the inspection train. The mistake has been general in railroad circles and many have been led astray by the incorrect idea. The inspection train is now on the northern lines and will not be in Paducah until about the 31 of next month.

There has been a special called meeting of the Brotherhood of locomotive engineers of the I. O. and Yazoo and Mississippi Valley roads for tomorrow and Friday, the 24th and 25th, the meeting to be held in Memphis. There will be representatives from Vicksburg, New Orleans, Water Valley, McComb City, Jackson, Paducah, Henderson and Louisville in attendance and matters of importance and beneficial to the brotherhood will be discussed and acted on. There will be from two to three delegates from each city. The local delegates selected are Engineers Joe Randall, Lloyd Grimes and W. F. Collins. They will leave tonight for Memphis to attend the opening of the meeting. The grand chief engineer of the brotherhood, Mr. P. M. Arthur, has been sent a special invitation and will likely be present. Some important results are expected as the meeting is a called one and such are not made for ordinary purposes.

In justice to myself, as well as the Marine Ways Co. of this city, I find it necessary to publish this article in order that it may be heralded to the river fraternity at large that one Samuel Coffin, assistant superintendent and inspector for marine insurance with headquarters at Cincinnati, has grossly and maliciously misrepresented the marine ways here, as well as done everything detrimental to my interest as superintendent of the ways. Mr. Coffin has left nothing undone to take all the business he possibly could from our ways by using his influence with steamboatmen and steamboat owners to have their steamboat work done at any place but the ways at Paducah. I am at a loss to know why he should exercise such prejudice, yet he has done so and still continues to keep it up.

Now in order to enlighten the readers of this article, regarding this matter, the charges I prefer against Mr. Coffin stand singly alone responsible for and can establish undisputed authority for every word I assert. I have lost not less than $12,000 or $13,000 worth of work through the misrepresentations of this man Coffin, but what occurs he had for no doing I am unable to explain, except natural envy and undermining "enviousness." He has never lost an opportunity to influence all the steamboat repair work away from Paducah, to the point that he could possibly direct, I can assign no reason unless he was getting a good tip, or hand out for all business taken from the Paducah marine ways to any other point he might see proper to place. Mr. Coffin has not hesitated to tell parties having boats to repair, that the Paducah marine ways is not in any condition to handle anything like a heavy boat. In order to show the fallacy of Mr. Coffin's misrepresentations, I will state that since I took charge of the marine ways three years ago, at my suggestion, the Marine Ways Co. have spent fully $15,000 in the most substantial improvements from the foundation up, having successfully handled some of the largest and heaviest boats. The large sidewheel steamer Island Queen being the last heavy boat which was handled out, thoroughly repaired and put back in the river after five or six weeks work without even cracking a glass of which her immense saloon cabin is largely composed.

In order to more fully substantiate what I say in regard to the work of the Island Queen, you will as an appendix to this article find the statement of Captain Leo Brooks, as to the manner in which the work was done and his entire satisfaction with the job when the boat was turned over to him. When I pulled the Natchez out some two years or more ago, Mr. Coffin fell out with me because I would not submit to his placing mechanics to work on her of his own choosing. After arguing with him I found it would be impossible to please him, and I being superintendent of the ways did not propose to be dictated by him or play "second fiddle" to his master, so I put the best back in the river. He then claimed he had been damaged one hundred dollars on the job which was refunded him by the Marine Ways Co. Now these are the true facts of this matter and I freely submit my statement to the readers of this article and feel assured I will be sustained where Mr. Coffin will be justly condemned.

THOS. MURRAY,
Supt. Marine Ways, Paducah, Ky.

We feel it due the Marine Ways Co. of Paducah and also Mr. Thomas Murray, superintendent, to give our testimonials as to the work done on our boat, the Island Queen. We most cheerfully accord the Marine Ways Co. and Mr. Murray great credit for the splendid mechanical work done on the Island Queen, while undergoing repairs here and when the boat was delivered to us after the work was completed we found the work to be of the most satisfactory character, and are free to admit that we do not think the work could have been improved on. Respectfully,
L. T. ANDERSON.

The sale of seats for the forthcoming engagement of the Wilbur Opera Co. in this city is a success. It should be thoroughly understood that the company will charge popular prices, and that seats may be procured for one or all of the various performances. It looks as though the demand will be very large. Interest in the engagement has grown constantly since the company's coming was first announced, but will not reach the grand climax until the public fully realize how remarkably strong the company is, together with the eminence in which each opera is produced. What the Wilbur have done in the way of business in other cities should be duplicated here, and doubtless will be. The public will always support an opera company that can give them first class productions at reasonable prices, as the Wilbur company does. Aside from a complete production of comic opera at each performance, the Wilbur, it should be remembered, introduce several very attractive vaudeville features between the acts of each opera, headed by Baby Arline and her pretty sister, Helen Gardiner, and her white-faced pickaninies.

PROTRACTED MEET.
GO TO BEGIN.
Protracted services, beginning this evening 7:30 o'clock, at Third street Methodist church. Preaching by pastor and other ministers in the city. All are cordially welcomed.

The Henry Harley will lay over here until next Saturday at 8 p. m. when she leaves for Tennessee river in place of the Tennessee, which is due tomorrow night.

Boatsmen at Memphis have entered into an informal agreement as can be made by a lot of negroes without organization to demand $75 per month as compensation for their work during this season.

When a coalboat stops at water develops it is thought there will be some excitement at Pittsburg about the river front. Not all the coal companies have signed the pilots' scale of wages. The controversy is growing more interesting every day.

Captain Crouch is leaving nothing undone to have the Charleston put in the very pink of condition when she comes off the docks. Don't forget that she leaves positively next Tuesday at 8 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., and all Tennessee river way landings.

The Island Queen's afternoon and night excursion to be given by the Natchez was abandoned yesterday afternoon as there was something wrong with the machinery, but everything will be put in good shape today and the excursion will come off this afternoon and tonight.

Mr. Wm. Arste, the popular publisher and traveling representative of the Waterways Journal of St. Louis, is in the city as a delegate to the convention now in session here. Mr. Arste represents the best waterways journal published in the United States and every river man that can raise a couple of "wheels" should not fail to subscribe for his journal.

The Courier-Journal of yesterday says: A large number of delegates to the Ohio Valley Improvement Association convention at Paducah will leave here tonight for Paducah, where the meeting begins tomorrow and lasts two days. Quite a number from Cincinnati and other upper Ohio river cities will join those of this city and Jeffersonville and New Albany. The meeting promises to be the most enthusiastic and business-like one ever held.

THE CAIRO RAILROAD.

INTERESTED PARTIES GO OVER ROUTE.

Messrs. J. L. Friedman, E. W. Smith, B. H. Scott, Geo. O. Hart and B. T. Payne, directors and promoters of the proposed railroad to Cairo, left this morning for a tour of the route.

The articles of incorporation for the company have not been finished yet, but will be ready in a few days when further steps in the organization will be taken.

INTERESTING LECTURES.
At the prayer service at the First Cumberland Presbyterian church this evening the pastor, Rev. J. O. Reid, will give the first of a series of lectures on "Deomotional History."

The subject tonight will be "The Conditions Existing in 1800." The lectures will be given very Wednesday evening for some time, and will prove very interesting, as Mr. Reid is a very bright talker and student.

A DOCTOR'S EXPERIENCE.

"Strains as it may seem," remarked a physician, who has practiced in a small place for nearly 30 years, "one-fourth of my practice is among the farmers living within a radius of 15 miles of the town. Farmers ought to be the healthiest people on earth, but as a matter of fact, there is something sick in their families most of the time. The trouble is, they eat too much. Their stomachs become clogged, biliousness and headache follow, then they send for me. I treat people over-eat, but for reason's sake they have heart disease, malaria and advanced stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact it is their stomach. I handle old indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache, and constipation and expensive doctor bills. It is sold by most druggists in 50c and $1.00 bottles. Ask for it by name. It will be glad to send you a trial bottle and a valuable little book on stomach troubles free. Peppin Syrup Company, Muskegon, Mich. U. S. A."

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

The blood poison sufferer who bases his hopes of a cure upon mercury and potash is doomed to disappointment. These minerals may dry up the sores and eruptions, and perhaps for months no external signs of the disease are seen, but just as sure as you live, you will experience again the horrible effects of the original poison and the added torture of Mercurial Rheumatism, ruined digestion and most offensive ulcers and sores. The use of these minerals diverts the poison from the natural channels and forces it back into the blood and system, where it preys upon the more vital parts, and heart disease, quick consumption or some other equally fatal disease ends the patient's sufferings. Mercury and potash are given to combat and destroy the deadly virus of Contagious Blood Poison, but they never have nor never will accomplish any such result. The advantage gained by a long course of these drugs is only temporary and short-lived.

No wonder, then, the blood poison victim grows despondent and abandons hope when, after taking mercury and potash long and regularly, and having followed to the letter his physician's instructions, he sees the old disease returning, bringing many new and strange symptoms, and, in spite of medical skill and in defiance of all human efforts, the body is soon covered with a mass of pustular sores and copper-colored spots. The membranes of the mouth, tongue and throat thicken and ulcerate, glands inflame and throb with pain, hair and eyebrows fall out, and it seems not an organ, tissue or fibre of the body escapes the ravages of this terrible poison. Mineral remedies having failed to arrest the disease, the pitiable sufferer feels that his choice lies between a life of the most intense mental and physical suffering or self-destruction.

But you can be cured quickly and permanently of Contagious Blood Poison by the use of S. S. S. It antidotes and destroys this peculiar virus, and no other known medicine does, and we confidently assert and believe that S. S. S. is the only true cure for this vile disease, this moulder plague. It is strictly and wholly a vegetable remedy, and we offer $1,000.00 for proof to the contrary. No bad effects follow its use. It cleanses the blood of this poison and restores it to its original purity and strength, and not only removes all traces of the disease, but destroys the effects of the mercury and potash as well. Profit by the experience of thousands who have been restored to health and happiness through the timely use of S. S. S., and do not be duped and doped by so-called specialists and others who have nothing to offer you but mercury and potash, put up in a different and perhaps more attractive form than that prescribed by your home physician.

Don't despair of a cure because other methods have failed. S. S. S. will not disappoint you, and the balance of your days may be the best and happiest you have ever known or dared hope for. Write our physicians all about your case, describing as accurately as possible your present condition, symptoms, etc., and they will cheerfully advise and help you to get well without any cost to you whatever.

Our Home Treatment Book on Contagious Blood Poison gives much information about the disease that we are sure will interest you. We will be glad to mail you a copy if you desire it.

MR. BROWN DIES.

INJURY RECEIVED IN COLLISION PROVES FATAL.

Mr. Alex. C. Brown, the commercial drummer, died last night at 8:45 from injuries sustained in a collision with a street car Tuesday night.

The end was not unexpected. He passed away in an unconscious condition, having never recovered from the shock of the collision. Mr. Brown was one of the best known commercial travelers in the state and was a member of the Commercial Travelers' Association, of Indianapolis, in which he carried $2,000 insurance. He was an old Confederate veteran having served in the regular Confederate army and also a member of the First Christian church. His daughter, Mrs. B. Cox, and Miss Mayne Brown, who are now in Texas, have been telegraphed of the death and will arrive in the city probably Thursday. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon from the residence at Third and Madison streets, Rev. W. H. Plunkerton officiating. If the arrival of the daughter is delayed the funeral will be postponed until they arrive.

LICENSED.

License to marry was this morning issued Mr. L. B. Schmitt, the well known painter, aged 30, and Miss Magie Smith, aged 18.

He thought nothing of the coat until after the car had arrived and departed from the depot. The garment was then missed and he immediately reported the loss to Officer Tom Orr who instituted a search without successful results. A stranger, entered Mr. Bud Quarles saloon, at the depot, with a coat answering the description of the one lost, soon after the car left, hanging on his arm and purchased a half pint of whiskey. This is the last heard of the thief.]

TODAY'S MARRIAGES

Mr. Bartley Schmitt and Miss Maggie Smith Wed.

Wallerstein-Levy Wedding Takes Place This Evening at Temple Israel.

The wedding of Miss Maggie Smith and Mr. Bartley Schmitt occurred this morning at 11 o'clock at the bride's home on South Fourth street. Rev. W. H. Pinkerton of the First Christian church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by the relatives and intimate friends of the popular young couple. Miss Smith is a pretty and attractive young lady who was honored by being elected the Goddess of Labor last year. She was the candidate of Typographical Union No. 134, and they were her body guard in recent Labor day parade. She is quite popular.

Mr. Schmitt is one of the News-Democrat's linotype operators, and has many friends in Paducah.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Schmitt left for a wedding trip to St. Louis, and on their return will be at home at 1625 Broad street.

The marriage of Miss Edna Wallerstein to Mr. David A. Levy of St. Louis, will take place this evening at 8:30 at Temple Israel. It will be a brilliant social function to which society has looked forward for some time. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. Alexander, the rabbi of Temple Israel and Dr. W. H. Fineschreiber of Davenport, Iowa. The attendants are: Miss May Wallerstein, maid of honor; little Miss Sarah Rosenfeld, of Rochester, N. Y., ring bearer; Mr. James Greenbaum, best man; and Messrs. Edwin Weil, Charles Weile, Melvin Wallerstein, Morris May, Sam Livingston and Simon Hecht, nephews. Prof. Charles M. Davis will preside at the organ.

A reception at the bride's home from 9 to 11 will follow the wedding ceremony. A number of out-of-town guests have already arrived for the occasion.

Mr. Morton Adcock, the well known strawberry grower, and farmer of near Arcadia, and Miss Emma Hinton, of Eighth and Harrison streets, will be married Tuesday.

Both are well known young people and have many friends who will be pleasantly surprised to learn of the wedding.

Andrew Pickensack, of the city, age 34, to Lida Leland, of the city, age 21. It will be the first marriage of both.

Len Gillreath, of Morganfield, Ky., age 32, a farmer, to Addie Belle Dyer, of the city, age 24. It will be the second marriage of both.

Mr. W. M. Dublin, age 50, a teamster of the South Side, employed at one of the mills, and Mrs. A. M. Bow, age 36, of the South Side, were this afternoon licensed to wed. The marriage ceremony will be performed by Rev. Russell, of the Third street Methodist church. It will be the third marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

OSCAR F. BARRETT, Cincinnati; Sam Coffin, Cincinnati; Frank Carlsly, Cairo; Mark Cole, Paducah; Irwin Dugan, Paducah.

One of the principal features of the convention will be the memorial to congress, setting forth the needs in the river. Particular emphasis will be laid on the necessity of constructing a dam at Joppa, Ill., twenty miles below here. This dam would make a good current over the reef at the upper end of the little chain.

BANQUET THIS EVENING.

This evening, commencing at 9.30, a banquet will be given to the visiting delegates and guests at the Palmer house. Curers will be laid for 150 only, and owing to the large number of guests expected only a few citizens will be able to enjoy this function, as it will be necessary to make way for the visitors.

THURSDAY'S SESSION.

Tomorrow morning will be taken up in business before the convention, and in the afternoon there will be a boat ride on the Island Queen. In the evening the guests will all be given tickets to the Wilbur Opera Company; two hundred seats having been reserved.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The delegates were late in getting down to business this afternoon. Reports from various committees were being heard at press time.

SOME FORECASTS.

Mr. Geo. H. Anderson, of Pittsburgh, will probably be elected president to succeed President Vance, who has served since the association was organized. He is now ill and may not be able to again attend the meetings.

Mr. E. P. Wilson will probably be re-elected secretary.

The next meeting will be held at Parkersburg, West Va.
